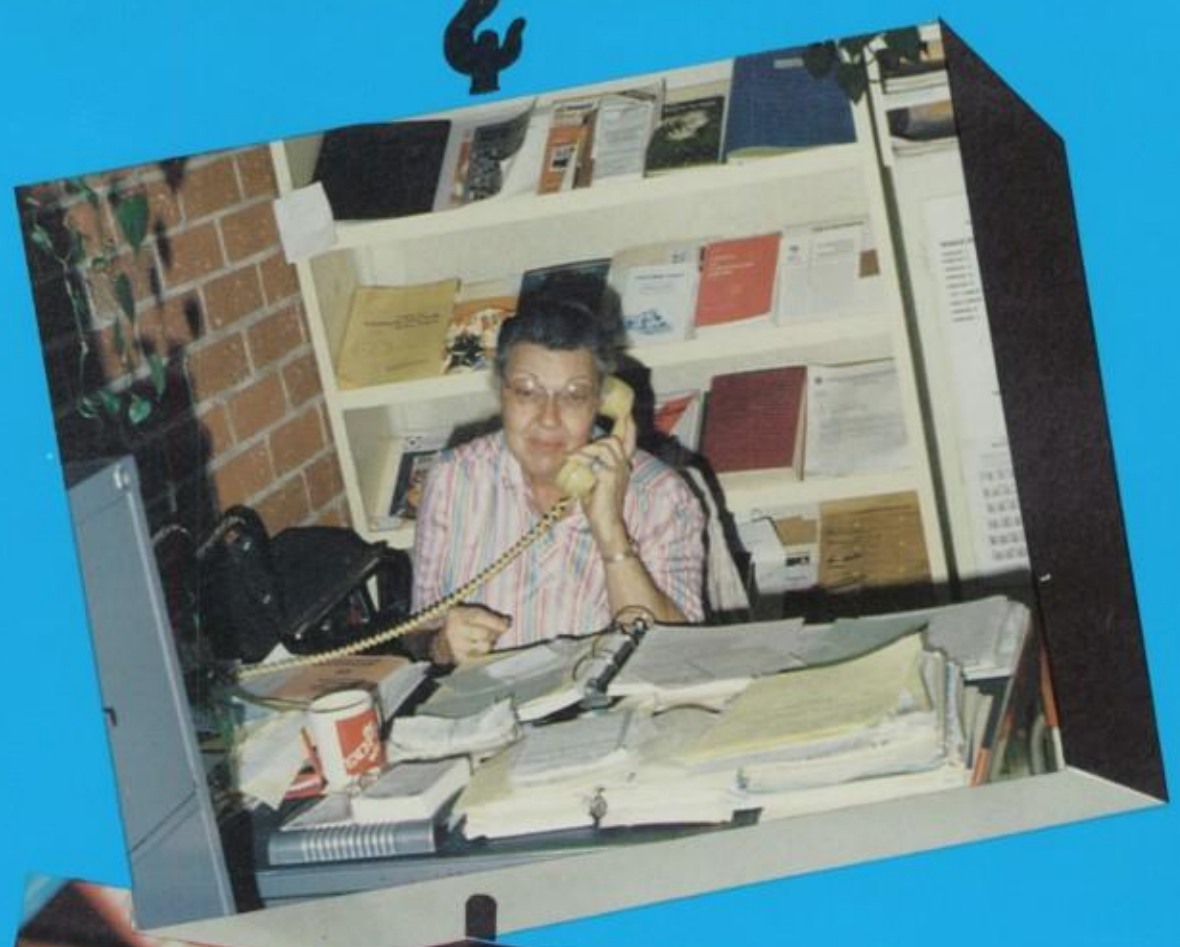
Mrs. Elma Baughman, Chino High's nurse, graduated from CHS 50 years ago. She has been in the nursing field since 1945 and has worked at Chino High since 1964. Elma, in her spare time, enjoys traveling and has even taken several trophies as a race car driver. When she retires, she plans to "get away from it all" in her motorhome and maybe even do a little parachute skiing. As a result of her many years of caring for and helping students, we dedicate this yearbook to her!



Mr. Rick Landorf has been the activities director for three of the eight years he has been here at Chino High. The thing he likes best about Chino High is his job because he gets to work with great kids, and he gets to do a lot of fun things, such as attending sporting events, participating with senior activities, and, of course, A.S.B. He enjoys sailing, camping and spending time with his family. We are dedicating this book to him because of his many years spent making our years at Chino High the best.

Mr. Jack Grisafe has been helping Chino High students "Build their Future" for 13 years. Being an extreme perfectionist, he expects hard work from his woodshop students, but no harder than he expects of himself. He has also taught adult school and summer school. Mr. Grisafe has kept many students in school who would have dropped out, and is helpful to both staff and students. Mr. Grisafe has many hobbies including woodworking, but most important to him is his family. We dedicate this book to him because of his many years of service to Chino High School.

The girls J.V. Basketball team is a young, inexperienced team that has matured very quickly. Their desire to reach their potential is reflective of a winning season. Many have contributed to the cause including Robin Swanson who's 100% effort in every game was influential in making her our top scorer. Inside scoring and rebounding is accomplished by Captain Suzanne Wolfinbarger and Rachael Thomas. The always cool Vicki Garcia, point guard, keeps our game under control. Other outside scorers, including Tina Armstrong, Becky Turmezi, and Natalie Souza are a constant threat to opponents. Highlights of our season began earlier when we finished in 3rd place at the Don Lugo Tournament. In our league opener, we scored a season high of 70 points as we defeated Bonita 70-15, this season has been filled with excitement for myself as I watched the girls become more confident on the court and develop a positive attitude necessary to make them winners. Thank you for giving me an enjoyable season!
